will: [verb] intend, purpose, decree, ordain, to determine by an act of choice.

Will Definition & Meaning - Merriam-Webster

One of the primary benefits of a living trust is that it allows your estate to be managed and distributed by your chosen successor trustee and avoid the probate process altogether. The cost of a living trust will often be 3 to 5 times more than the cost of preparing a will. In the short term, a Will would seem to be more economical.
